Faith @ Home offers a wide variety of tools available to help those in any life season take steps toward creating a God-honoring home.

My Faith @ Home Plan

We encourage you to create a plan several times a year to assess how intentional you have been at home and to help you decide what small steps you can take next.

Pointers

With more than two dozen topics, Faith @ Home Pointers provide a biblical perspective on the most common family seasons and challenges, along with recommended resources and a description of ministries available from the church for additional support.

Idea Cards

Idea Cards make it easy for couples, parents and grandparents to take one small step to become more intentional at home, including marriage date nights, family time activities, connecting with your teen, mealtime conversations, movie night chats, etc.

Initiatives

Initiatives support a specific theme and/or intentionality habit. Families will have access to free resources that will make it easy to incorporate faith conversations and relationship building routines into the fabric of family life.

Faith-Filled Holidays

Most holidays are either rooted in a Christian faith tradition or can be used as natural launching points for faith and relationship building conversations. We provide tools to help you become intentional during holiday celebrations.

Going Deeper Opportunities

While we believe the home to be the primary place of spiritual formation, the church is an important partner in that journey. That is why the church offers a variety of classes, ministry programs and resources designed to come alongside your family's faith journey.

Thank you, in advance, for taking steps to become more intentional at home.

*You can do it!
We are here to help.*
